

H.C. Burleigh Papers

Dunham

|                             |          |
|-----------------------------|----------|
| QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES |          |
| LOCATOR                     | 2324     |
| BOX                         | 4.2 / 53 |
| FILE                        | 18       |

DOUBLE WEDDING AT SACRED HEART

REV. P. A. LESPERANCE OFFICIATING PASTOR

MISS BEATRICE YETT, BRIDE

She Married Carl Lucas, Also of Watertown—Elmer Guiza of New York and Miss Marguerite Barnum of Newburg Wed.

Carl Lucas and Miss Beatrice Yett, both of this city, and Elmer Guiza of New York and Miss Marguerite Barnum of Newburg, N. Y., were married this morning at a double wedding solemnized at 7 at the Church of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, Rev. Peter A. Lesperance officiated.

Mr. Lucas, 358 Superior street, and Miss Yett, 208 Farwell street, were the first to be married and were attended by Miss Barnum and Earl Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas at the close of the declaration of their wedding vows attended Miss Barnum and Mr. Guiza.

Miss Maralyn Honeyman acted as flower girl. Miss Yett was gown in white satin and wore a pink veil. Miss Barnum selected pink satin and wore a pink picture hat.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Yett home to 65 guests and later in the day the two couples left by motor for New York city. Mr. and Mrs. Guiza will reside in New York and Mr. and Mrs. Lucas will live in Syracuse.

Mrs. Lucas is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Yett, 208 Farwell street, and has been employed as a telephone operator. Mr. Lucas is a son of Howard Lucas of this city.

Mrs. Guiza is a cousin of Mrs. Lucas and formerly resided in this city. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnum of Newburg.

Mr. Guiza is a son of Mrs. Anna Guiza of New York. He is a barber by occupation.

REPORT STUDENT DRINKING IS CUT

W. C. T. U. SAYS TEETOTAL LIST GROWING

RESULT OF QUESTIONNAIRE

Dry Organization Gives Results of Quiz Which Included 255 College Presidents.

Evanston, Ill., June 2 (U.P.)—Less student drinking than ever, an increase in teetotaler students and a growing student trend against liquor were reported by many college presidents in a survey of colleges by the W. C. T. U.

National headquarters of the great dry organization made public today the results of a questionnaire sent 255 college presidents and listed only eight answers showing the same amount of drinking

CONGRESS TODAY

(By United Press.)

Senate: Considers president's veto of pension bill and takes up conference report on tariff bill.

Campaign funds committee continues investigation of Pennsylvania primary expenditures.

Foreign relations committee begins consideration of London treaty in executive session.

House: Takes up private bills on consent calendar.

BILL, BELL AND CO. POWER GOES TO UTILITIES LINES

Ogdensburg, June 2.—Bill, Bell & Company, whose flour and feed mills were purchased by the St. Lawrence Valley Power company recently, turned the power of both plants over to the St. Lawrence Utilities yesterday. Grinding operations were discontinued Saturday.

Bill, Bell & Company will retain possession of the flour mill

NORTHERN NEW YORK
EMPS

as before prohibition. Seven which reported drinking conditions bad and three that claimed drinking conditions were worse than before prohibition.

The tabulation of answers follows: Less drinking than before prohibition, 140.

No drinking, 44. Drinking either unknown or almost unknown, 47.

Same amount as before prohibition, 8.

Drinking conditions worse than before prohibition, 3.

"The views of the presidents," the W. C. T. U. said, "coincide with the statements of the two famous

DUNHAM

Bath, Ont., 23 Jan., 1960.

Mr. W. Allan Dempsey, U. E.,
Box 181, Belleville, Ont.

Dear 'Cousin Metcalfe':

Your query to Dr. Preston re Dunham-Detler-Pemberton has been passed to me, I suppose, because Preston is a historian, not a genealogist.

Firstly, let me say that Withrow's Barbara Cook is loaded with inaccuracies, as well as fictional characters. Pemberton is not a Loyalist name. It does not appear in the Parish Register of St. George's, Kingston. Nor does it appear in Lamborn's Parish Register of St. John's, Bath, or of St. Paul's, Fredericksburgh. Neither is it found in McDowell's Register (Presbyterian). There is no application of one of this name in the Land Books of Ontario down to 1793. As far as I am concerned, the name is purely fictional insofar as it occurs in Withrow's book.

St. George's, Kingston, Parish Register--first baptism 15 July, 1786.

First marriage 29 Nov., 1782.

St. John's, Bath, Parish Register-----first marriage 25 Oct., 1787.

St. Paul's, Fredericksburgh, Register---first marriage 9 March, 1788.

So, it is absurd for Withrow to say that the only clergyman in Ontario capable of marrying was John Stuart at St. George's.

William Logan, the first Methodist minister, came to Ontario in 1793. He brought Darius Dunham in 1793. So, Dunham could have been married in Bath or Fredericksburgh, if he had a wife.

Gunniff's Early Settlement of Upper Canada, page 292, reads: Dunham retired from the ministry in 1800, having married into the Detler family.

There is no Pemberton mentioned in the U. E. List nor in the List of Land Grants to Sons and Daughters of U. E. Among the children of Valentine Detler is found the following:

Elizabeth Detler, wife of Darius Dunham, drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council, dated 6 July, 1797. Elizabeth, born 2 May, 1769; died 2 March, 1844. Dunham died 12 Oct., 1825.

I hope that this information clears away your doubts. Let me add, before closing, that George W. Detler's diary and family chart lists Elizabeth as wife of Darius Dunham, and adds a list of her children.

My best regards to yourself, the Doctor and family.

Yours sincerely,

H. G. Burleigh

